WE NOMINATE

William Nelson Kight, one of this community's most refreshing, level-headed and successful youth workers, who over the span of three short years has come to know more about Princeton's social problems and its seamy side than many of those holding elective office in the several municipalities constituting the Princeton Area. This summer this about-to-be-25 senior at Princeton Theological Seminary is serving as Assistant to the Rector of Trinity Church and is largely responsible for the impact of "Trinity's Summer with Youth," an effective, many-sided program stretching out to some 200 youngsters, which is sustained by a special Trinity appropriation of $10,500.

Prior to joining the Trinity staff and launching a major effort to relate Trinity to the problems economically and culturally deprived youth face here in Princeton as well as in Trenton, Kight had completed a rigorous three-year "apprenticeship." Two years of intensive volunteer duty, during which he lent a hand wherever he could and was deeply involved in such undertakings as the First Presbyterian Church's short-lived "Tomb" and "The Basement" at St. Andrew's Church, were followed by a one-year internship at St. Andrew's — a kind of "laboratory year" separating two years of full-time study at the Seminary and his upcoming senior year, 1968-69.

It was early in his pre-Trinity period that Kight, a cum laude graduate of the University of Michigan, where he succeeded in maintaining a dialogue between the Army ROTC and the leadership of the Students for a Democratic Society, made Nassau and Witherspoon Streets his nightly "beat." Almost every night for the past three years, from "the time the agencies close down until 1:00 or 2:00 A.M.," Kight, chunky and standing only 5-6, has "walked the streets." "I just go out on the chance," Kight says, "that somebody will want to say something and I can be there to help."

Kight, who as a Michigan undergraduate switched from engineering to social studies "because I am interested in people and not machinery," is low-keyed in his approach to the Trinity program: "This is a far greater step than most people realize because Princeton itself refuses to admit to having any disadvantaged youth. We are not only admitting that this problem exists, we are trying to do something about it . . . We are trying to reconcile racial and economic differences by seeking to gain an equality of treatment for the Negro youth and to develop a sense of belonging in place of the current alienation."

As Kight looks forward to the summer's climax, a fortnight of camping for nearly 100 youngsters on a close-by "dude ranch," he recalls a spring experience: "I took 9 Negro youths from Princeton on a retreat with the Junior High Fellowship of St. Andrew's. In the long talks I had with these kids, I discovered that 6 had deep-seated convictions that they could never amount to anything. They had already given up on themselves . . . This is crucial because a feeling of worthlessness is a self-fulfilling prophecy. If you think you are going to be worthless, you will be. It is also significant because that feeling can lead to apathy or to hostility against the environment that declares your worthlessness."

For insisting that this summer of involvement "is only a beginning because if our concern died with Labor Day, the program would have been a cruel hoax;" for relating his work to the scriptural commandment: "Accept one another as Christ has accepted you to the glory of God;" for his outreach to the youth of Princeton: he is our nominee as

LONG - NO HUM - SUMMER

Princeton Hibernates? The pace of life in Princeton in August is no longer measured by the gentle breathing of dogs asleep in the middle of Nassau Street. (Some old-timers will tell you that dogs could and did sleep there many Augusts ago.)

But the town does indeed slow down. There is a persistent notion around Princeton that the world can stop for a month or two every summer, while important issues wait impatiently on the calendar for the day after Labor Day.

Three municipal bodies simply wrote off the first part of August:

The Borough Planning Board didn't meet although it still hasn't sent to Mayor and Council its final report on the proposed new zoning ordinance.

Township Committee didn't hold its August 5 meeting, although three of its five members were in town. Sometimes municipal bodies including Committee — have been criticized for acting on various measures in the summer-time when people do indeed go away for a while on vacation, and Committee is apparently waiting for fall for the action to begin.

Residents pushing for stronger dog-control asked for action before school starts, but Committee will wait until September before it acts: dog statistics are being collected this summer. Committee will meet in public session on Monday, August 19.

The Township Planning Board didn't schedule an August public meeting, although its Road Master Plan has yet to be passed.

And last week's July meeting of the Princeton Regional School Board was called off because there weren't enough board members around for a quorum.

Some municipal officials, Borough and Township, will say privately and off-the-record, that such a summer slowdown is mildly ridiculous in a town of 25,000 people, a town no longer orbiting around the academic calendar, as it used to do when everybody was associated, more of less, with the University.

Besides, the work load accumulates in one big pile, so that everything has to be done Right Now in September.

A LADY IN COUNCIL?

Maybe. The liveliest subject of discussion this week is still the possibility that Mrs. Raymond F. Male may run for Borough Council on the Democratic ticket.

Mrs. Male is waiting for a letter from the Civil Service Commission in Washington giving her complete clearance under The Hatch Act.

The Act forbids any partisan political activity by public officials who deal with Federal funds. Mrs. Male is not a public official dealing in Federal funds, but her husband is. He is New Jersey's Commissioner of Labor and Industry and was, for two terms, mayor of the Borough of Princeton.

Seven years ago, he was charged with Hatch Act violation because he was running for re-election as mayor, and made two campaign speeches supporting Governor Richard J. Hughes while he held the state post.

Mr. Male was cleared. But the memory lingers on, and Mrs. Male decided she would like full and written approval from Washington before she makes her move. New Jersey's attorney general and Governor Hughes have already said that her candidacy is in order under the Hatch Act.

The vacancy on the Borough's Democratic ticket has occurred because candidate Stephen Gladstone, freshman crew coach at Princeton University, has decided to accept a coaching offer from Harvard.

Mrs. Male is a member of the Princeton Democratic Association; however, she is acceptable also to the Princeton Community Democratic Organization, formed a year and a half ago.

She expects a decision from Washington in about two weeks, but she has until September 26 to file her candidacy. That is the last day of registration for the November elections and the last day for filing as a candidate.

IS SQUIBB IN CLEAR?

Further Appeal in Question. The long struggle to prohibit E. R. Squibb & Son from locating in Lawrence Township may be at an end. Opponents of the proposed move of the pharmaceutical firm first lost a three-month fight to block Squibb on the municipal level, and last week saw a 10-month court battle come to an unsuccessful conclusion.

The Superior Court suit initiated last September by the North Lawrence Citizens' Association and Princeton Township was decided in Squibb's favor last Friday by Judge George H. Barlow. The NCLA and the Township now have 45 days in which to decide if a further appeal, this time to the Appellate Division of the state Supreme Court, will be made.

MAN OF THE WEEK: William N. Kight, for his work through Princeton churches on behalf of disadvantaged young people in the Princeton area. He is currently helping to direct Trinity Church's "Summer with Youth" program.

If they both decide against the bulldozers will soon be rolling over the 213-acre tract on Route 206 and Province Line Road.

William G. LaTourette, NCLA president, said that attorneys David Dietz and Fred Stickel III, will study the judge's decision very carefully and that the association would be governed by their opinion on a further appeal.

Township Administrator Joseph R. Nini commented that Township Committee would have to decide on the matter, once its members had studied the case. Both men indicated that the cost of continuing the case would pay a significant part in the decision. Mr. Nini could not say what the Township had spent so far, because Mr. Stickel has not billed it yet.

Suits Combined. The Township and the NCLA originally filed separate suits against Lawrence officials. However, Judge Barlow combined them into one and split it into three phases. He dismissed charges of conflict of interest against two Lawrence committeemen who voted for the controversial ordinance and alleged improper procedure used by the committee and planning board in its adoption.

Lastly, Judge Barlow dealt with the key point of the case, the validity of the ordinance itself, listening to six days of testimony from planning consultants representing both sides. In his 10-page opinion he decided that the testimony given by the plaintiffs was "insufficient to overcome what he called, 'the presumption of validity'" according to a municipal ordinance.

"Plaintiffs' evidence, when weighed against that of the defendants, at best presents a fairly debatable issue, and though the court might doubt the governing body's wisdom in adopting the questioned ordinance, the court may not; in such circumstances, substitute its view for that of the governing body," Judge Barlow wrote.

He also denied that the ordinance was invalid, because it did not conform to the township's master plan, commenting that "I am satisfied that the law does not require a municipal zoning ordinance to reflect the design of that municipality's master plan."

In response to the charge of "spot zoning" by the plaintiffs, Judge Barlow ruled that, although the legislation was for the express purpose of accomodating Squibb, there is "no impropriety" in a land user seeking and receiving a zoning amendment to suit its future plans.

TO DISCUSS FIRES

At Princeton Hospital. Representatives of Princeton Hospital met Tuesday night with Borough officials in executive session to discuss the two fires that have occurred this summer at the hospital.

The meeting was called at the request of the hospital following criticism of hospital procedure by Borough Councilman Robert Hendry, who is also Fire Commissioner for the Borough.

Representing the Borough were Mr Hendry; Mayor Henry S. Patterson; Councilman William H. Walker, who is Police Commissioner; and Administrator Robert F. Mooney.

John W. Kauffman, administrator of the hospital; Walter A. Seligman, associate administrator; George Conover, president of the hospital's board of trustees, and Dr. Charles H. Place, physician who was present when the earlier of the two fires occurred on July 4. The other fire was July 15.

"CENTER" CASE OFF

Until September. Princeton Township's case against the Princeton Shopping Center's blacktop has been put off again.

It is now scheduled to be heard before magistrate's court at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, September 18, in Township Hall. It was on the docket for this Wednesday, but was adjourned to give the contractor time to complete the necessary paving.

Township officials report that only minor spot-repair work has been done so far on the driving surface at the Center. The Township is bringing the Center's owner, George Warnecke, to magistrate's court under an ordinance passed last year establishing paving standards.

John Feist, of Feist & Fiest, Newark, new manager of the Center, says that painting will begin early this fall on poles, exterior walls, under-canopy areas, and so on. New fencing has already been installed in some places and some landscaping has been redone.

THOMPSON DUE HERE

At McCarthy Offices. Congressman Frank Thompson Jr., who is backing Senator McCarthy for president, is expected at the new McCarthy headquarters in the Princeton Shopping Center this Thursday evening. The Fourth District Volunteers for McCarthy are holding open house with refreshments and entertainment from noon until 10 p.m.

Edward Norman, Volunteers' chairman, has said that he hopes by Thursday to announce that more local politicians have joined the "honor roll" of McCarthy supporters led by Congressman Thompson, Lawrence Township Committeeman Charles E. Connell Jr. and East Windsor Township Committee candidate Sal Cangelosi.

Tickets for the August 15 McCarthy Day Rally in Madison Square Garden are on sale at the headquarters.

PINCHER PINCHED

On Molesting Charges. Borough police arrested a 14-year-old Princeton boy Monday, suspected as the bicyclist who has pinched several women in the last three weeks as he rode up from behind.

The suspect was caught on Jefferson Road by Borough patrolman Robert Mucciarelli, after two Borough police cars and one Township car chased the bicyclist for about 30 minutes. The cars were summoned by a witness to a molesting incident.

The boy was released to his parents after questioning by Det. Charles Harris. Identified by three victims, he will face charges of juvenile delinquency in Mercer County Juvenile Court.

MAN FINED $50

For Shooting Dog. Raymond Wadsworth, 32 Spruce Street, was fined $50 in Borough criminal court last week for shooting a dog.

The complainant was John Rodweller of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. The fine will be turned over to the SPCA. In addition, Mr. Wadsworth was fined $10 for discharging a gun in the Borough in violation of an ordinance.

Mr. Wadsworth, who pleaded guilty, told police that the dog, a large black Labrador Retriever had attacked him in his garage the night of July 4. The dog was owned by Mrs. Ingiborg Warren, 71 Wiggins Street.

Lt. William S. Smoyer Killed In Vietnam

The tragedy of the war in Vietnam has touched Princeton for the third time in three years.

Marine Second Lieutenant William S. Smoyer, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley C. Smoyer, 86 Olden Lane, was killed Sunday, July 28, while on patrol outside DaNang. He had been there less than a month.

He joins two other Princetonians who have lost their lives in the service of their country. Marine Cpl. David T. Graham, son of Mrs. Katherine Graham, 206 Birch Avenue, died September 1965 of wounds suffered eight weeks earlier near DaNang. Army Lieutenant Richard D. B. Shepherd, son of Mrs. Anne Shepherd, 198 Linden Lane, was killed in action on February 8, 1967, at Lai Khe.

Lt. Smoyer graduated from Dartmouth College in June, 1967. He enlisted in the Marine Corps and was commissioned a second lieutenant from Officer's Candidate School in Quantico, Va. in January, 1968. After completing basic training in May, he was sent to Vietnam as an infantry platoon leader early last month.

At Dartmouth, Lt. Smoyer was a three-year member of the varsity soccer and hockey teams and belonged to Casque and Gauntlet, a senior honor society; the Junior Honor Society, Green Key and Theta Delta Chi fraternity.

An honor graduate of Princeton Country Day School, he also attended Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass., where he was a member of the Class of 1963. There he was a member of the varsity soccer, hockey and baseball teams and received the Bierer Prize, awarded to the senior "outstanding in character and personality."

In addition to his parents, Lt. Smoyer is survived by a brother, David, of New York; a sister Nancy, who spent a year in Vietnam serving with the Red Cross; his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Charles E. Smoyer, and his maternal grandfather, Edwin H. Brooks, both of Akron, Ohio.

A memorial service attended by more than 400 people was held Saturday at First Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Donald R. Meisel officiating. Memorial contributions may be made to Dartmouth College, William S. Smoyer Memorial Fund, Hanover, N.H.

On Public Housing. It's going to be a long time before you can hang curtains i nthe Township's low-cost housing units. But the Township staff has already begun to work on its share of the project.

On Monday, August 19, Administrator Joseph R. Nini expects to lay before Committee an informal memorandum listing what the Township has on hand in the way of codes and ordinances, and what it needs to acquire.

For example, the Township has been operating under the 1955 National Building Code. But a new 1967 code has come along since, and Federal housing authorities require adoption of the new code.

The same is true with plumbing, housing and fire codes. And a separate electrical code is required, so Mr. Nini and W. Joseph Shinn, the building inspector, are searching for a good electrical code to adopt.

Citizens to Help. Then Mayor Carl C. Schafer and his fellow Committeemen must appoint a Citizens Committee. Federal regulations are vague about the duties of the committee, but fairly specific about its composition.

It must be broadly representative of the community's ethnic, racial and economic groups and any number of citizens may be appointed. The group must meet at least four times a year.

Mr. Nini does not know when Committee will appoint the group. Probably its chief job will be to gather information and present it to committee.

The biggest job ahead before housing can become a reality is the required neighborhood analysis. Neighborhoods throughout the Township must be analyzed for sewers, water, electricity and streets, and also for ethnic composition, income level, social structure and the like.

Who will make this Township-wide survey? That decision has not yet been made, according to Mr. Nini. Perhaps it will be done by Mr. Nini and other Township employees. However, the Township's planner, Kendree and Shepherd of Philadelphia, already has much of the information, and it is possible that the planning firm might be asked to make the neighborhood survey.

Ordinances amending the necessary codes can be passed within a few months, while the survey is going on, Mr. Nini points out.

After the Township's "workable program" has been presented to HUD — the Federal Department Housing and Urban Development — it will undergo a three-month period of review. Then the Philadelphia office of HUD will send it to Washington, with recommendations, and the Washington review will take about three weeks more.

So don't start to roll up the rugs just yet.

NEW PRESIDENT NAMED

For Youth Center. Harold Logan, 460 Walnut Lane, has agreed to serve as president of the Adult Board of the Princeton Youth Center succeeding James Margolis, who has resigned.

Mr. Logan was elected vice-president of the Center's Adult Board at the annual meeting June 19 when Mr. Margolis was elected president. Mr. Logan's succession to the presidency is scheduled to be ratified at a board meeting this Tuesday. Mrs. Thomas Hartmann will then become vice-president.

Also at Tuesday's board meeting, the Personnel Committee plans to suggest a reorganization of the Center's direction. Under the new proposal, a Center Director and a Program Director would work together as associates; cooperating, but carrying two different sets of responsibilities.

Wilbur Williamson would continue at the Center, with the title of Center Director, and the board would hire a Program Director for the new position.

The board is also scheduled goals we want."

The new president also emphasized that he is impressed with Borough Mayor Henry S. Patterson's "enthusiasm, support and understanding of Center problems."

One of Mr. Logan's first efforts, he said, would be to stimulate the Center's Youth Board "to take more action." He said he hoped to re-kindle the younger half of the Center's double-team board so that the two age groups can work together.

LAWRENCE VOTE SET On Council-Manager Plan. Lawrence Township residents will vote November 5 on whether or not to adopt a council-manager form of government. If approved, a new council will be elected in 1969 and take office on January 1, 1970.

The Lawrence Township clerk's office received this week the 4404-page recommendation for change from the five-man commission elected last November to study the issue. The commission's report states that the "major weakness" in Lawrence's present government "is the lack of a single, responsible chief executive."

The commission proposes a five-man elected council and a township manager appointed annually. Councilmen would be elected to four-year terms on a partisan basis and represent the township at large, as provided under the Faulkner Act. Elections would be held every two years with the councilmen serving staggered terms.

The proposed Township manager would be chief executive and administrative head, responsible for budget preparations, most major appointments and executive of all laws and township ordinances. The salary is estimated at about $15,000. While the council would elect a mayor annually, much of his current power would shift to the manager.

The commission held two public hearings and 32 work sessions. It decided that the council-manager plan would "make the least change in the legislative or policy-making structure" of the present committee form of government, and it would provide the most effective improvement of the executive function.

BATTERIES, CASH TAKEN In Four Princeton Thefts. In four robberies reported during the past week, Borough and Township Police have disclosed that two car batteries and about $50 in cash were stolen.

Mrs. John A. van Ralte Jr., 81 Harriet Drive, told Borough Police that a wallet containing $30 and several credit cards was taken from her unlocked house early Tuesday afternoon, July 30, while she was in her back yard.

Miss Harriet Allison, an employee at the Dorothea House, 120 John Street, reported the theft of a wallet containing $20 and personal papers, while she was working Friday morning.

Car batteries were stolen from Ellen M. Gray, 37 Henry Avenue, while her car was parked last Wednesday at the Community Park lot, and Kenneth Moss, 106 Leigh Avenue, who had parked in Bannmans Alley, off Witherspoon Street, over the weekend of July 26.

Stanworth Apartment Entered. The apartment of Mrs. William Patee, 15 N. Stanworth, was entered between 8:30 p.m. and 7 a.m. on Sunday, July 28, by a thief who cut a rear screen door to reach in and unlock it.

Taken, according to Borough police were $56.50 from a purse left lying on a table, a transistor radio and two silver and one gold cigarette lighters. The lighters were valued at $20.

DRUG ARREST MADE On Federal Warrant. John M. Duncan, 19, 81 Leigh Avenue was arrested Thursday by Township Police on a Federal warrant issued in San Diego, Calif., where Duncan was wanted for "conspiracy to smuggle narotics."

The arrest was made at 12:40 a.m. by Lt. Frederick Porter and Patrolmen Anthony Pinelli and Sgt. Norman Servis at Race Street and Leigh Avenue. Duncan, who was seized in a narcotics raid at the Palmer Motor Ion January 5, was arrested May 6 in San Diego and set free on $6,000 bail.

When he failed to appear for indictment July 25, the Federal warrant was issued. Duncan is now in Mercer County Jail, awaiting extradition to California, according to Township Det. Samuel Bianco.

Clarence J. O'Kane, 65, 294 Alexander Street, was arrested on a drunken and disorderly persons charge Friday by Borough police, and was sentenced to 40 days in the Mercer County Workhouse by Borough Magistrate Theodore T. Tams, Jr.

DR. THOMPSON NAMED To Holmes Professorship. Lawrance R. Thompson, 62, a 31-year member of the Princeton faculty and official biographer of poet Robert Frost, has been named Holmes Professor Belles-Lettres., President Robert F. Goheen has announced.

He succeeds Professor Willard Thorp, nationally known literary historian, who held the chair from 1952 until his retirement in 1967. The Holmes Professorship was established in 1957 by a gift from Silas Holmes, a New York City Merchant. Professor Thompson is the eleventh incumbent.

Pray for rain.

Rain, nonetheless, remains a wanted commodity in this part of the world July was short, August is continuing the trend

Meanwhile, what about the heat, of which there has been more than enough? An end, if temporary, is in sight. Showers Thursday or Friday should bring a cooler weekend (but the long range forecast for August is for temperatures somewhat above normal.)

News Of The THEATRES

REPERTORY CONTINUES

Kafka, Shaw. "The Trial," adapted from the Kafka novel by Andre Gide and Jean-Louis Barrault, will continue in Summer Intime's repertory with Shaw's "Arms and the Man."

The Gide-Barrault drama will be given for the last times this Friday and Saturday and Shaw's comedy will be presented Thursday, Friday and Saturday, August 15, 16 and 17.

Both plays are being offered in Murray Theatre on the University campus.

"ALL THE KING'S MEN"

Final Intime Film. The 1950 film adaptation of Robert Penn Warren's novel of political despotism, "All the King's Men," will be shown Monday at 8 p.m. in the air-conditioned Mc Cormack Art Museum on the University campus next to Murray Theatre.

The film is the last in Summer Intime's film festival. It stars Broderick Crawford in the role that describes the rise and fall of a southern demagogue.

Features in the cast are Joanne Dry, John Derek, John Ireland, Mercedes McCambridge and Sheppard Strudwick. Robert Rossen directed and wrote the screen play.

FLAMENCO!

And Folk. Dominick Zullo, flamenco guitarist who makes his home in Princeton, and singer Diane Raquel, will appear in joint concert next Wednesday, August 14 at Murray Theatre under the sponsorship of Summer Intime.

Next Tuesday, August 13, folk singer Cynthia Gooding, also a Princeton resident, will present a concert of folk music in Murray Theatre. Both musical events will begin at 8:30.

Mr. Zullo is known to Princeton audiences through his appearances at Lahiere's and in New Hope at Chez Odette. He has recorded flamenco guitar for Folkways records, appeared frequently on television, and has performed in McCarter Theatre with guitarist Carlos Montoya.

Miss Gooding is sometimes referred to as one of the "old guard" of folk singers, from the era of Pete Seegar, Burl Ives and Josh White. She did many concerts with Theodore Bikel and made several records with him, in addition to the records she has done alone.

CHAMBER MUSIC PLANNED

At "Sundance," The New York Chamber Soloists provide next weekend's entertainment at Sundance, near Upper Black Eddy, Pa., in concerts Friday and Saturday night, beginning at 9 p.m.

Friday night, the group will present piano trios and quartets by Haydn, Mozart and Schumann, followed on Saturday with contemporary music including the harpsichord and clarinet, highlighted by Spanish composer Manuel de Falla's harpsichord concerto.

Reservations and further information are available by calling the amphitheater, 215-847-5303.

"HOW TO SUCCEED . . ."

In Titusville. The Open Air Theatre in Washington Crossing, N. J. — near Titusville — will present "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying" this Friday and Saturday and again next Friday and Saturday, with rain dates on Sundays, August 11 and 18.

The musical will be presented by the Villa Park Players, their seventh musical offering in five years at the Open Air Theatre.

Anthony Petito is producer and director. In his cast, Mr. Pelito has Carlo Altomare and Sue Durand in the leading roles, supported by Richard Bossman, Robin Durand, Larry Bond, Rick Wurpel and Pat Nardelli.

SHAW AT INTIME

Last of the Regulars. Shaw can be a pleasant hot-weather theatre experience, and so he is in Summer Intime's fourth and last regular repertory offering, "Arms and the Man," which opened Friday night in Murray Theatre.

It will play again, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, August 15, 16 and 17, at 8:30 p.m.

"Arms and the Man" is good fun Shaw: brief, nicely plotted, still amusing after 75 years. R. Edward Townley has directed his young actors briskly so that the sharp, quick Shavian pace is maintained all the way.

This means that happy phrases like "nine soldiers out of ten are born fools" or "peace . . . but not friendly relations!" come across with an appropriate crispness. Sometimes the pace goes so unremittingly that lines are almost thrown away, but you'll catch them all, so don't worry.

How It All Began. Here is the Serbo-Bulgarian War of 1885, you'll recall. The Swiss mercenary Bluntschli, takes refuge in the bedroom of Raina Petkoff, she of noble Bulgarian birth, affianced to Major Sergius Saranoff, who has just led a breathlessly heroic cavalry charge against Bluntschli's Serbian comrades-in-arms.

Bluntschli proclaims himself a realist who knows that all soldiers are cowards at heart, that the wisest of them avoid combat whenever they can and that Saranoff's heroic cavalry charge was a piece of utter stupidity.

Bluntschli also knows but doesn't admit it until the very last page of the script, that he himself is a romantic at heart. (Or why would he have climbed the waterpipe to Raina's boudoir when he could have taken a dive into the nearest cellar?)

The story is played on spare sets quite different from the opulent Bulgarian vulgarity Shaw imagined, but summer budgets are never Byzantine.

Charlotte Forbes has designed costumes that are really quite exceptional, especially her own white dressing gown as Raina and the green silk that fires her own auburn hair.

As Bluntschli, Summer Intime has Peter Evans, who is unquestionably the best member of the cast. Mr. Evans plays the Swiss mercenary cool without making him wooden and stodgy, not an easy thing for a young actor to achieve.

He looks too young, of course—this is a company whose actors have to use elaborate make-up to make themselves appear 35 — but he is very competent indeed.

And he has a spirited and beautiful Raina in Miss Forbes, a young actress who can assume the delicious mannerisms of Shaw's affected heroine without making you want to spank her.

Jon Lorrain is Raina's father, Major Paul Petkoff, the Bulgarian officer who isn't quite sure how you move troops from place to place . . . Mr. Lorrain blusters about and shouts for the servants but never overplays.

Then we have Robert Rockwell as Major Saranoff, Raina's finance. This is the wooden-soldier military man with white tunic and mustaches, who never withdraws, never apologizes, never acts with a brain in his head—yet has the perception to see that he is not only a coward, but a man of many aspects, most of them sombre indeed.

The remainder of the cast is routine. These are young actors, semi-professional at best, and you will not see polished performances from any of them. But the spirit is high and strong, the Shavian lines come across as you want them to, and the sturdy little comedy offers a beguiling way to spend a summer evening.

—Katharine Bretnall

Playhouse, Prince, Lincoln

The Thomas Crown Affair (now playing) is an extremely effective drama. It goes far beyond the story line to delineate inclusive portraits of the major characters. There is surprisingly little dialogue. The film is a visual experience in which color, technique, star quality performances and direction convey its essence with great subtlety.

Steve McQueen is a standout as Thomas Crown, an eccentric, lonely, young Boston millionaire, who burglarizes banks as a protest against the system. He gathers together a gang of seven strangers and pulls off a successful $2½ million bank robbery.

The bank is reimbursed by the insurance company—which then calls in Faye Dunaway, it's man-eating female, to get to the bottom of the affair. Working with detective Paul Burke and an IBM selector, she concludes that McQueen is the guy. A tremendous battle of wills and personalities develops between the two.

IT'S NEW To Us

TRY A LITTLE GLAZE

Ceramic Studio Opens. If you need a new cookie-jar, why not make your own? Or at least glaze your own.

We're about to visit the new Hidden Acres Ceramic Studio to pick up a new hobby and we invite you to come along. The Studio will hold an open house this Sunday from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. and all the "greenware" will be reduced in price by 10%.

Hidden Acres is on Route 27 — the Princeton-Kingston Road — and if you're driving from Princeton, it's the first red house past Mets Tavern, between Kingston and Kendall Park.

"Greenware?" If you don't know what greenware is, Mr. and Mrs. Martin, who run the Studio, will be delighted to instruct you. Greenware is the raw pot — the cookie-jar, the ashtray, the soup tureen.

The design or pattern, is already on the shape. You buy paints, brushes, glazes, tools and move right in from there. Then Mr. Martin will fire your piece in his professional kiln.

The greenware sold at Hidden Acres is poured into molds by James Martin himself. June Martin, his wife, a certified teacher in ceramics, gives lessons between 7 and 11 p.m. every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

If you buy your supplies ($2 minimum) from the Studio, the lessons are free free, free. And so is the scheduling: you can come and go as you wish within that 7-11 p.m. hour. (Lots of coffee from Mrs. Martin's hospitable hand, and a soft-drink machine to keep you cool.)

For beginners, Mrs. Martin recommends a very small piece, like a small dish or a toothpick holder for 25c. Learn the gentle handling techniques required, she suggests, and then go on to bigger things like vases, tea sets, lamps.

Prices for the greenware are no higher than $8. That's the price of a giant (20 by 15 inches!) soup tureen.

You'll want to look ahead to Christmas and Hidden Acres' ceramic Christmas tree, two feet high, with Christmas lights sparkling from the glaze that YOU put on!

Mrs. Martin emphasizes that you don't need any special talent to have fun with ceramics! "You just need a teacher."

Hidden Acres is open Tuesdays through Saturdays from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m., and is closed Sundays and Mondays — except for this gala opening Sunday, August 11.

NUTS . . . HOT AND SALTY

And Fresh. Ed Petty peers into his big copper kettle and stirs the fragrant mix of cashews, almonds, popcorn, butter, sugar and salt that he calls Kettle Korn Krunch.

Stop at his Nut Kettle in Flemington's Turntable Junction shopping center, pick up a bag of Kettle Korn Krunch for your party, and we'll bet you eat it all up before you get home.

Cashew butter? Fresh-roasted cashews ground up with salt — that's all . . . and delicious! You can buy it in stubby little beanpots that hold 11 ounces, and have the package done up in white gift box with orange yarn tie, for $1.95.

Cashew and peanut butters are ground right there in the shop on a quarter-horsepower grinder. We saw the immaculate pans and screens where Mr. Petty roasts, dries and salts the nuts he offers on trays in his showcase.

And such specimens! He makes a point of buying the giant nuts, and those salted pecans ($1.70 the half pound) must be almost two inches long. Extra-large filberts, even. These are $1 for a half pound, and so are the great big cashews.

Fancy mix is $1.20 the half pound, with Brazil nuts, cashews and pecans. No peanuts, although Mr. Petty has nothing against the peanut, as you can see from his extra-large Virginia beauties at 50c a half-pound.

Pistachios come in colors at Nut Kettle. The classic red-dyed ones are here, and so are whites and the natural light tan which we'd never seen before.

Brazils, salted and whole, are 90c for half a pound, and blanched California almonds are $1.30 for the same amount. Ever try "Indian nuts?" You may know them as pinon nuts — the kind you have to crack with your teeth. Here's a big tray, at $1.35 the half-pound.

In a side bin, Mr. Petty has fat little envelopes of ground nuts for people who like to cook with nuts. You can buy filbert flour, blanched almond flour or granulated Brazil nuts and granulated black walnuts. Around 80c-$1 a half-pound.

The Nut Kettle is open seven days a week from 10:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

sen and teak. But also the most magnificent men's sweaters you ever saw, direct from Ireland.

We're across Turntable Junction from The Nut Kettle at a new Flemington shop called The Freight Station. Right now, it's in the tiny building that used to house the Choo-Choo Bake Shop, (now in a bigger location at Turntable).

Eventually, however, the Scandinavian splendor will move into that big freight station at the Turntable entrance.

The sweaters are hand-knit in Iceland from hand-twisted Icelandic wool. Incelandic sheep have a softer wool than your sheep and mine, and the sweaters are delightful to touch. They have traditional Scandinavian patterns, but apparently each knitter has her own family pattern, differing subtly from others, so you won't find much duplication.

Colors are natural, tan, brown and some greys — all the natural hues of the sheep. The price tag is steep, but the quality is superb.

As a matter of fact, Freight Station has a lot of Icelandic sheepskins right there. The wool is straight and soft, and the skins quite large—$25 and $31.

However, this isn't a clothing shop. Freight Station is particularly proud of its teak, (see box) stainless and pewter. The stainless flatware is Finland's Lundtofte with black nylon handles. In holloware, there are the usual serving dishes, creamers and sugars.

Jensen again, stands along David Anderson's Norwegian serving pieces made of pewter with cast-pewter handles that combine stern, massive patterns with deep black lines that stand out against the pewter grey.

Bottle opener, nutcracker, salad servers and a cheese knife are in this collection.

American pewter, usually copies of 18th-century pewter, is done in the contemporary manner at Freight Station. Daniel Boardman Bump is the designer and metallurgist, and Mrs. Bump is the lady who makes the handsome cases. See her case for six glass-bottomed pewter liqueurs.

Cocktail glasses in brushed pewter, have sturdy pedestal feet. Creamer-sugars are low, but graceful.

Charles Martel and the early Middle Ages provided the model for a chess set in rough-hewn bronze and nickel, with helmets for knights and a lot of dark military appeal.

On a series of jewelry shelves, Freight Station displays Ahlby pewter jewelry from Sweden, including $2.50 stud earrings for pierced ears and cuff-links, all done as experiments in plane geometry. (Earring posts are fairly long, by the way).

Pendants show stylized figures in dark and light pewter, similar to the round "stones" of pewter set high on pewter rings.

The shop also has prints and posters by Picasso, Degas and Matisse. Some have been executed on lucite and make nice paperweights.

Hours, like those at other Turntable shops, are 10:30 to 5:30, every day of the week, including Sundays.

Teak, Solid

Most teak accessories have been made from end pieces, usually arranged checkerboard fashion. At the Freight Station in Turntable Junction, Flemington, you'll see a salad bowl of staved teak, "solid" — if a bowl can be solid — rather than pieced.

The wood is smooth as satinwood to the touch, and the idea of corrupting it with tomatoes and olive oil is almost unthinkable.

The shop also has a Gargantuan salad bowl from Georg Jensen's Danish teak woodworkers. It's 15 full inches across and costs $60, which is a lot of lettuce. A very shallow bowl, almost like a tray, ($35) and an ice-bucket belong to this special Jensen teak group also.

News Of The Theotres

uses the split screen technique to great advantage: frames are split up into as many as six fragments in which there are sometimes two images, sometimes only one. The technique is extremely effective in pointing up McQueen's many-faceted personality.

GARDEN and BRUNSWICK

Thoroughly Modern Millie (now playing). Something for just about everybody is a tall order for a picture to fill, but Ross Hunter comes close with this spoof of the gay and frivolous 1920's.

Julie Andrews gives a delightful performance as Millie, singing and dancing again. She sings the ballad, "Jimmy," in her most endearing style. Carol Channing, first and still the best to play the lending role in "Hello Dolly," sings the oldie, "Do It Again," and is shot from a cannon in a bit of slapstick the kids will like.

The cast includes comedienne Beatrice Lillie as the leader of a white slavery gang; ingenue Mary Tyler Moore, James Fox (of "Those Magnificent Men in Their Flying Machines") and John Gavin, last seen here in "Psycho" and "Back Street."

Professor Thompson has published six works on Frost, receiving wide acclaim for the recent "Selected Letters of Robert Frost." He has also published a biographical study of Longfellow, the highly controversial "Melville's Quarrel with God," and "William Faulkner: An Introduction and Interpretation."

STREET ACADEMY OPENS With Princeton Staff. A handful of Princeton young people began work this week in a storefront street academy at Orden and Southern Streets, Trenton, a Negro ghetto area.

The street school is based upon the program sponsored in Harlem by the Urban League.

A Youth Associates program, with financial assistance from Trinity Church, the street academy seeks to prepare Negro drop outs for college. So far, a dozen students are enrolled. The young teachers are using the daily newspapers as their opening texts, and the curriculum includes basic skills in English, history, science and languages, as well as Negro history, studies in urban life and political resources.

The teachers ages 15 to 21 attended a five-day leadership training Institute last week at Trenton State College by Youth Associates. The program was titled, "Power, A Person and Planning, and included evening speakers, traveling seminars and workshops, bringing together Trenton and Princeton youth leaders, Negro and white.

Thomas B Hartmann of the OEO and now with Rutgers, gave the institute's keynote speech, "The Power of Youth in Our Changing Society." Evening speakers included Dr. Carl Fields of Princeton University who discussed creative action, and Stuart Sheldon, a 19 year old Negro in charge of the OEO youth division in Camden.

Participants in the institute included Barbara Sullivan, Laurie Burk, Alissa Cawley, Simeon Moss, Woody Navin, Fred Carter, John Provenzano, Ronald Ray, Dan Schay, Dave Schlecting, Larry White, Richard White, John Saladino, Conway McGowan and Clark Muenzer

Carrington, O'Dell in Charge. Principal planners were two clergymen, G Rogers Carrington and Donald O'Dell, Youth Associates' executive director of the Institute of Applied Politics at Trenton State

The traveling seminars took the young people to the offices of Frederick Hipp, executive secretary of the New Jersey Education Association, who discussed the means whereby a state block can influence legislature in matters concerning members' rights. They heard F. Gilman Spencer of Princetno, editor of the Trentonian comment on the power of the press.

Barbara Weingard, executive director of the Mercer Street Friends, Trenton, held a seminar on ways to keep services to "the people on the street" without compromising to "the power structure." She said the Friends term themselves, 'creative critics of the power structure."

Governor Richard Hughes talked to the group on the topic of youth's potential, and the Southern Christian Leadership Conference representatives in Trenton discussed the Poor People's March and their organizational problems in Trenton.

A final session was held before 80 teachers-in-training of the Urban Teacher Corps. The young people gave their views as students, asking that "teachers find ways of helping people instead of being teaching machines." A video-tape was made of the meeting, and the young people returned the next day for further discussion with the junior teachers.

TRENTON MAN CHARGED With Careless Driving. Fred Slappy, 68, of Trenton, was charged with careless driving Saturday evening as he veered off a gasoline pump at Leggi's Esso Station, 221 Bayard Lane, and hit a pedestrian, Gerald J. Reifsnyder, 26, of Monmouth Junction.

Township Police said Mr. Slappy told them that he had been drinking, and was unable to remember hitting either the pump or Mr. Reifsnyder. He said he had turned into the station to have the power steering checked on his car, a 1955 Cadillac Station owner Lewis Leggi drove Mr Reifsynder to Princeton Hospital, where he was treated for a bruised knee and released. Mr. Slappy's arraignment is set for September 4 in Township Court.

George J. Degree, 20, of Hightstown, was given 12 stitches at Princeton Hospital late Monday afternoon to close a head wound suffered when he was struck by an auto driven by Mrs. Francis L Moore, of Trenton.

Borough police said Mr Degree was running across Nassau Street, near Witherspoon, and ran into the car while it was travelling at about 10 miles an hour. No charges have been made in the accident, under investigation by Patrolman Arthur Jackson.

A two-car collision Tuesday morning resulted in slight injuries as Herbert R. Broadway, 32 Leigh Avenue, was travelling south on Witherspoon Street and was struck by a car driven by Steven L Bucce, 18, of Hightstown, travelling west on Wiggins Street.

Mr. Bucce told police he stopped at the blinking yellow light at the intersection, but saw no cars, and proceeded to cross. Mr. Broadway swerved to the left to try to avoid the west-bound car, but failed.

Mr Bucce was treated for lacerations of the scalp and cuts and bruises on the right leg, with a possible fracture, at Princeton Hospital. Mr. Broadway suffered a bruised left knee and a cut on the right ankle. Borough Sgt. Robert Anderson and Ptl Douglas Watson are investigating the accident.

ASHCRAFT TO SPEAK On Telescope Optics. Dr. Arnold C. Ashcraft Jr. will speak Tuesday, August 13, to the Amateur Astronomers' Association of Princeton, in a meeting beginning at 8 p.m. at the Princeton YMCA His topic will be "The Optics of Reflecting Telescopes."

A research chemist with the Plastics Division of Union Carbide in Bound Brook, Dr. Ashcraft is a member of the instrument design and construction committee of the Sperry Memorial Observatory in Cranford, with Amateur Astronomers, Inc. He will discuss design and practical problems faced in the construction of a reflecting telescope.

OSBORNE APPOINTED Machine Shops Director. Ralph E. Osborne, 56, has been named director of the Princeton University machine shops, which construct most of the experimental equipment used for science and engineering research and instruction. His appointment was announced by Anthony J. Maruca, executive director of administrative and personnel services.

Mr. Osborne, a staff member and administrator at Princeton for 30 years, will coordinate activities of central machine shops in Palmer Physical Laboratory, the Engineering Quadrangle and the Forrestal campus, which employ some 50 instrument makers, machinists and technicians.

A native of Litchfield, Conn., Mr. Osborne attended Trenton Junior College and Rutgers University. He joined the University staff in 1938, employed until 1952 as technician, instrument maker and shop supervisor in the physics department. He has been serving at Forrestal as assistant to the administrative director and as associate manager of grounds and buidings. Married and the father of three sons, he lives at 225 Varsity Avenue, Penns Neck.

POLICEMAN IS VICTIM Of Late-Night Theat. Three men, one armed with a starter's pistol, threatened Borough patrolman William Guinn early Monday morning while he was on usually-quiet desk duty at about 1 a.m.

Mr. Guinn said one man, described as white, 25, 6'2" tall, with a heavy build, came into the station from the front door to ask for directions. While Mr. Guinn was giving them, another man rushed behind the desk from the station's back stairs and pointed a starter pistol at him, threatening to kill him.

Chief Peter J. McCrohan said Patrolman Guinn hit the intruder and pushed him against a file cabinet. After a shot from the starter pistol, both men ran out of the building the same way they had come in. Patrolman Guinn gave chase through the station's garage after the man with the gun, but stopped when he saw another man standing in the shadows.

Ralph E. Osborne

Chief McCrohan said the garage is usually locked at night, since the desk officer is unable to see the stairs from his desk. Det. Robert McAvenia and Sgt. Robert Anderson are investigating the incident.

FILMS SCHEDULED By Public Library. The Princeton Public Library will present two films, "Discover America" and "The Wyeth Phenomenon" at 8 p.m. Thursday in the meeting room. The last in the series of family films, the program will run for 80 minutes.

15 LOSE LICENSES For Points or Speeding. Fifteen drivers from the Princeton area have had their licenses suspended for various infractions of the law by the State's Division of Motor Vehicles.

Suspended from driving privileges under the point system were Robert O. Smyth, 25, 231 Nassau Street, three months; Andrea A. Bellando, 25, Marshalls Corner, Pennington; Ernest Echor, 54, 81 Leigh Avenue; Lawrence Arecco, 18, Spring Hill Road, Skillman; Troy Brown, 32, 118 Reed Street, Hightstown, all for one month; and Donald L. Smith, 34, Plainsboro Road, Cranbury, 15 days.

On the revoked list for speeding in excess of 50 or 60 mile limits were Phyllis S. Coe, 23, 28 Wiggins Street, 60 days; and the following for 30 days each: Robert C. David, 18, 106 Hessian Hill Drive, Pennington; Ramsey L. Raymond, 53 Cherry Valley Road; Catherine A. Velten, 37, 60 Cambridge Road, Kendall Park; Karol L. Jeffries, 30, Route 1, Clarksville; Donald E. Stives, 35, Conover Road, Hightstown; Kenneth A. Percival, 25, 98 Princeton Arms, Cranbury; James C. Cross, 24, Woodsville-Marshall Corners Road, Hopewell; Edward F. Burns, 47, 8 Oak Branch Road, Cranbury.

Daeger, Kids!

Boys (maybe even girls?) who live near the sewer and incinerator plant on River Road have been doing a lot of petty vandalism around the plant, and while Borough Administrator Robert F. Mooney is certainly unhappy about the broken windows and so on, he is more concerned about danger to the young intruders.

Youngsters could easily be electrocuted by any of the high-voltage wires. They could fall into the fiery-hot incinerator pits. They could fall into the deep sludge wells. They could be seriously injured climbing the barbed wire that encloses the plant. They could break a skull falling from the big bulldozer.

Mr. Mooney thinks the vandals come from the River Road, Autumn Hill Road, Herrontown Road and Caldwell Drive areas.

A watchman will be stationed at the plant nights and weekends from now on, Mr. Mooney says.

RUBENS PROJECT BEGUN By Princeton Author. A 26-volume study of the works of Flemish artist Peter Paul Rubens has begun with a volume by Princeton University art historian John Rupert Martin, an authority on the 17th century painter.

Dr. Martin's book deals with the "Ceiling Painting for the Jesuit Church in Antwerp," Rubens' native city, which is sponsoring the project. The work dates from 1620.

The collection will be published at the rate of about three volumes a year until 1977, the 400th anniversary of

Rubens' birth. Much of the 26 volumes planned are based on research by the late Dr. Ludwig Burchard, the German art scholar who died in 1960

Professor Martin, a member of the Princeton faculty since 1947, is a native of Hamilton, Ontario. His other books include "The Princeton Portrait of John Milton," "The Illustration of the Heavenly Ladder of John Climacos," and "The Farnese Gallery."

AWARD NIGHT SET

With Banquet and Prizes. The Princeton Chamber of Commerce will sponsor an awards banquet Thursday, August 15, to close the Princeton Recreation Department's summer program.

Recreation Director R. Donald Barr, 25 staff members and 42 winners in the tournament of Champions will be feted at the banquet, to be held at the Nassau Inn. Other guests will include borough and township officials, the two municipal administrators, and members of the press.

Tickets to the banquet are $5, available from the Chamber of Commerce, 12 Nassau Street, or the Recreation Department, in Township Hall.

AUCTION-FAIR PLANNED

By Rocky Hill Group. The Third Annual Bid 'N Buy Sale will be held October 12 at the Rocky Hill Baseball Field, on Washington Street next to Trinity Church, Rocky Hill, all proceeds going to the Rocky Hill Community Group.

Mrs. Donald Freeman, general chairman, and Robert Morris, collection chairman, will spend August and September gathering items to be auctioned or sold at the booths. They seek donations of furniture, household items and appliances. Books, toys, handcrafts, baked goods and cassetes will be sold from the booths.

Far South African Tour. The Columbus Boychoir has left Princeton for a three-week 20-concert tour of Chile, Peru, Argentina, Ecuador and Columbia.

Arriving in Santiago, Chile, Friday, the 26-voice group will be taken to President Eduardo's Montalva's palace for a private interview and concert. In Bogota, Columbia, the Boychoir will perform at the Eucharistic Congress, where the Pope will be present.

Boys from this area boys traveling with the group are Gregory Schmidt, Stephen Mantell and David Male of Princeton and Erol Beytas of Cranbury.

Chaperoning the Boychoir will be Donald Bryant, director; Robert Haley, assistant director; Mrs. Ralph Bloom Jr., choirmother; Graham Matheson, teacher-supervisor; and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mantell, who will record the trip on film for use in a television production.

Swim Meet Planned

Princeton's young swimmers are invited to participate in a swim meet Saturday from 9 to noon in the Community Pool.

Boys and girls will be judged separately in these age categories: under 10; under 12; under 14; and under 16. Medals will be given to the winners.

The meet, first of its kind, is open to anybody who holds a swimming permit or a free swim card. Kiwanis and the Princeton Recreation Department are joint sponosrs.

Obituaries

Prof. Richard H. Wilhelm, 59, chairman of the Department of Chemical Engineering at Princeton, died suddenly on August 6 at Center Harbor, N. H., where he was vacationing with his family. He lived at 591 Lake Drive.

Dr. Wilhelm had been chairman of his department since 1954 and a faculty member here for 20 years prior to his appointment to that position. Numerous achievements in his field had brought him wide recognition — last April, he was named to the National Academy of Engineering, the highest professional distinction that can be conferred upon an American engineer.

In June, the University's Board of Trustees named him to the Henry Putnam University Professorship, an endowed chair established "to provide for recognition of a scholar of extraordinary ability in any discipline." His success in testing a principle called chemical parametric pumping for separating fluid mixtures drew the attention of scientists throughout the world. The principle has possible uses for separating salt from ocean water and petrochemical separations.

A member of the Management Committee of the University's Forrestal Campus, Dr. Wilhelm was a licensed professor engineer in New Jersey and served as a consultant to several corporations. He was a member and director of various scientific societies and contributed to numerous technical journals in his field.

Born January 10, 1909, in New York, Dr. Wilhelm prepared in the city's public schools for Columbia University. He earned his undergraduate degree there in 1931 and also held two advanced degrees from his alma mater, including his Ph. D. received in 1935.

Prof. Richard H. Wilhelm

Joining the faculty here a year earlier as an instructor, he was promoted to assistant professor in 1937, associate professor in 1943, full professor in 1946 and departmental chairman in 1954. During World War II, he served the federal government while remaining at Princeton in various research capacities.

Prof. Wilhelm's first wife, the former Rachel Hixon of Leonia, died in 1964. They were the parents of two daughters, Karen and Joan, and a son, David. In the summer of 1966, he was married to Mrs. Paul J. Strayer, the former Sarah Kollock of Charlestown, S. C. Her first husband, the late Prof. Strayer, professor of economics at Princeton, died in 1961.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

John L. McVeigh, president of the Pennington Quality Market Inc., unexpectedly died August 1 in Galeton, Pa., while on vacation. He lived at 8 Thurston Avenue, Ewing Township.

Born in Hopewell, Mr. McVeigh began working in a food market at age 9. In 1931, he and his brother, Edward, bought a grocery business in Pennington. A third brother, Joseph, also joined the store and 11 years ago they moved the store to Route 31 in the Pennington Shopping Center.

Mr. McVeigh was a member of the Pennington Office Advisory Board of the First Trenton National Bank. Husband of the late Rose Marie Thomas McVeigh, he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Rosemary McGrath of Washington; his brothers, Edward F. of Pennington and Joseph of Titusville; two sisters, the Misses Catherine and Margaret McVeigh of Trenton, and four grandchildren.

The service was held at a Pennington Funeral home with requiem mass celebrated at St. James R. C. Church in Pennington. Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery.

Ellis H. Young, 83, of 16 Prospect Street, Plainsboro, died July 31 at his home. Born in Princeton, he lived in Dayton for 35 years and in Plainsboro for the past five.

A gunsmith in the Dayton area for 40 years, Mr. Young retired in 1963. He was a member of the National Rifle Assn. Dayton Presbyterian Church.

CONTRACT AWARDED For FMC Pilot Plant. A $4.2 million subcontract has been awarded by FMC Corporation to the Blaw-Knox Company, Pittsburgh, Pa. to complete engineering and build a pilot plant for converting coal to synthetic crude oil, char and gas.

To be constructed adjacent to the FMC research site on Route 1, the plant will process 36 tons of coal a day to produce 30 barrels of synthetic crude oil per day. It marks the fourth stage in the FMC Char Oil Energy Development program (COED), begun in 1962 for the Department of Interior's Office of Coal Research, to make commercially feasible yields of synthetic crude oil, gases and char from coal.

The objective of the pilot unit is to obtain engineering data for the design of a commercial plant and to evaluate the commercial potential of the products. Construction will begin in March, 1969, and operation is scheduled for early 1970.

RCA ADDS METALLURGIST To Research Center Staff. Dr. Harold B. Shukovsky, a physical metallurgist, has joined the staff of RCA Laboratories at the David Sarnoff Research Center on Route One. He had been on the staff of the Western Electric Research Center in Hopewell Township since 1965.

Mrs. Polly K. Lyons

At RCA he will become a member of the Magnetic Memories Research group of the Data Processing Applied Research Laboratory. Dr. Shukovsky graduated from MIT in 1962 with a bachelor of science degree in physical metallurgy, and received an M.S. degree in 1964 and a Sc.d degree in 1965 from there also.

He lives with his wife, a son and a daughter, at 48 Merion Place, Lawrenceville.

MATHEMATICA SIGNS ORC For Basic Income Study. Dr. Tibor Fabian, president of Mathematica, Inc., 92-A Nassau Street, announced last week that the company had retained Opinion Research Corporation to conduct field interviews in a government-financed study of a "basic income program" for New Jersey.

Sponsored by the Office of Economic Opportunity, the program is a joint effort of Mathematica and the Institute for Research on Poverty at the University of Wisconsin. Mathematica will select a number of families in the state to receive cash payments for three years in an experimental guaranteed annual income, or negative income tax.

The payments will depend on total earnings and size of the families. Using the results of ORC interviews and other research, Mathematica will compare the economic experience of these families with that of similar families outside the program.

Miss Heather Ross, a member of the Mathematica research staff, first designed the test of the negative income tax as a graduate student at MIT. She submitted an original proposal to the OEO on the concept, introduced in 1962 by Milton Friedman, professor of economics at the University of Chicago and an economic advisor to Barry Goldwater.

Two Princeton University economists and Mathematica consultants lead the project, due to begin in the fall. Princeton sociologists Robert Scott and Charles Wheatley, Princeton economist William Branson and Rutgers economist Michael Taussig are other Mathematica consultants involved in the work.

Field operations will be directed by David N. Kershaw, Mathematica's projects director, who will work closely with ORC vice presidents, Dr. Herbert Abelson and Dr. Reuben Cohen. The analysis of the results will be handled jointly by Mathematica and Wisconsin scientists.

CONVENTION HELD By Business Women. Mrs. Polly K. Lyons, Textile Research Institute, attended the 34th National Convention last week of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, held in Minneapolis.

Mrs. Lyons, president of the Princeton BPW Club, heard Thomas Paine, deputy head of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, predict that U.S. women will make space flights by 1979. Business included installation of the national president and awards to five individuals and five organizations for advancing the status of employed women.

PROMOTION ANNOUNCED At Opinion Research. James Fouss, Princeton Arms, Cranbury, was last week promoted to associate survey director at Opinion Research Corporation, after five months as assistant survey director.

Mr. Fouss, who holds a B.A. degree in political science from Miami University and an M.S. in public relations from Boston University, spent six months at ORC in 1962 while fulfilling requirements for his Boston degree. He joined the company in February after serving with the U. S. Air Force.

Market Dynamics, Inc., an ORC subsidiary, last week announced two additions to the staff, as David G. Gore was named project director and S. Edward Kram an assistant project director.

Mr. Gore, who lives on Bayberry Road, was previously a research account executive with Gallup & Robinson. He holds a B.S. degree from Wayne State University. Mr. Kram, 46 Henry Avenue, received an A.B. degree from Princeton University and did graduate work at the University of Pennsylvania, studying sociology.

NCR IS NAMED To Market NCA Product. National Computer Analysts, Inc., and the National Cash Register Company last week announced an agreement to give NCR exclusive marketing rights to NCA's "Quick-Draw" series, a computer program enabling the machine to draw its own "flowcharts," diagrams of the computer's own programs.

NCA President John J. Sheehan said the agreement will make the Quick-Draw series rapidly available to computer users around the world through sales arrangements with NCR's 1500 salesmen in more than 100 countries.

NCA will continue to own the Quick-Draw series, which saves time previously spent by programmers in drawing flowcharts by hand. In the first week of sales by NCR, 40 units were purchased by data processing concerns.

TOWN TOPICS reaches every home and place of business served by the Princeton post office. By their own figures, no other Princeton newspaper does half as well.

Chamber Music Appreciated.
To the Editor of Town Topics:

Free chamber music under the stars is a marvellous addition to the Princeton summer scene, for which we have to thank the persistent efforts of Mrs. Barbara Sand. Knowing of the success of such ventures in other University towns, Mrs. Sand was convinced that Princeton residents would respond as enthusiastically.

Starting with nothing but this idea, she spent several months talking to University officials, to potential supporters in town, and to possible performers. Her enthusiasm gradually won increasing support.

The University agreed to make available suitable space and to sponsor the concert series as a non-profit and tax-free venture. Financial support in large and small amounts came from a large number of Princeton music lovers.

Two different chamber music groups agreed to play, dates were chosen, posters were printed and distributed all over town, a lot of fingers were crossed wondering whether Princetonians were really interested in outdoor summer concerts . . . and the result exceeded the most optimistic expectations!

The first evening, 700 people filled the North Court of the Graduate School, many armed with garden chairs or blankets, others sitting on the grass. Another capacity audience came the second time.

Their variety was the most striking: Young and old, town and gown, summer visitors and permanent residents. Upward Bound youngsters and University graduate students.

Thanks to the energy and dedication of Mrs. Sand, the University has helped to fill a gap in Princeton's summer activities. It is much to be hoped that these free outdoor concerts will become a permanent fenture in our town.

Question and Answer.
To the Editor of Town Topics:

Anyone passing the recently nicely landscaped ground around The Princeton War Memorial at Mercer and Nassau Streets might wonder what provision its supervisory authority has made to prevent it from becoming a weed patch.

Editor's Note: The Borough will maintain the property, pull the weeds and keep the grass mowed, according to Administrator Robert F. Mooney.

Article Appreciated.
To the Editor of Town Topics:

On behalf of the Southern New Jersey Chapter of the Leukemia Society, Inc. I want to thank you for the fine article in your July 8th edition concerning our Mercer County Auxiliary.

Your publicizing of our "Dixieland" night aided in our realizing an attendance of 240 people. Mrs. William O'Brien, fund-raising chairman who was directly responsible for the success of the evening and her co-chairman, Mrs. Robert Pressley, also extend a "thank you" to TOWN TOPICS.

Remember When . . .?
To the Editor of Town Topics:

I remember the old places you wrote about (TOWN TOPICS, July 25.)

We drilled in the hall (the University Hotel) you had pictured in the paper. William Libby was captain of Co. L.

The tally-ho used to go through Princeton. They had two men on the back to blow horns.

Jugtown had a town pump right in the intersection. I used to go to the Kingston mill for feed. We bought feed and flour from Mr. Nelson.

Mr. Vandewater used to have a hardware store on the corner of Mercer and Stockton. They had a scale to weigh your wagons of hay. That is all gone now.

Why did they take down the Princeton Inn? It was a good building. They do some funny things these days.

Hibben was head of the college then. There was a race track where Hodge Road is today.

I have helped fill the ice house for Jim Margerum — there were no refrigerators.

You speak about Cedar Grove. We used to go to the entertainments — they were good. The building couldn't accommodate the people, the crowds were enormous and people came from all over.

RICHARD L. REED

Save That Tiger.
To the Editor of Town Topics:

I was dismayed to read in Town Topics that Princetonians might appropriately wear Indian Tiger coats during the football season. The Indian Tiger is in danger of extinction already due to the pressure of man. To encourage the vain fashion of wearing tiger coats will only speed the permanent loss of this noble animal.

Legislation is before Congress which will prohibit the importation and sale of pelts from threatened species. The tiger is one of these. I hope it will be definitely out to be seen in a tiger coat. No Princetonians would want to extinguish the tiger!

Leon J. DuBois, Lawrenceville-Pennington Road, Lawrence Township, has been named an instructor in music at Rutgers College of South Jersey. The former piano instructor in music at Rutgers College and chairman of the music department at Princeton Day School has also been affiliated with the Princeton Ballet Society, Princeton Society of Musical Amateurs and the Music Club of Princeton.

A native of Rochester, N. Y., Mr. Dubois attended the Eastman School of Music Preparation, earned a B. A. at Amherst College and was a Woodrow Wilson Fellow at Princeton University, where he received a master's degree.

Bernard P. Miller, 445 Prospect Avenue, has been elected 1968-69 chairman of the Princeton Section of the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics, a professional society for aerospace engineers and scientists. He is manager of the earth orbiting satellite mission center at the RCA Space Center in East Windsor.

Other officers are Joseph J. Trayhar, 65 College Road West, vice-chairman, a research engineer for the department of aerospace and mechanical sciences at Princeton University, and Richard E. Thompson, Wynnbrook West, Hightstown, secretary, a research engineer for Greyrad Corporation.

Professor John W. Tukey, chairman of Princeton University's Department of Statistics, has been elected an honorary fellow of the Royal Statistical Society, headquartered in London, one of the top honors in the statistics field. At the close of the academic year, Dr. Tukey, who also holds the part-time position of Associate Executive Director of Research at Bell Telephone Laboratories, was awarded an honorary doctor of science degree by Yale University.

Dr. Morton H. Goldstein, 234 North Harrison Street, has begun practice in plastic and reconstructive surgery in New Brunswick. He was formerly chief resident in the specialty at Montefiore Medical Center, in the Bronx, New York.

Dr. Goldstein, a graduate of Alfred University with a medical degree from the University of Chicago, has been granted surgical privileges at Middlesex General and St. Peter's General Hospitals in New Brunswick.

After internship at the University of Chicago Clinics, Dr. Goldstein spent eight years in residency preparation, with training programs in hospitals affiliated with the Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons and the State University of New York Medical Centers in Syracuse and Brooklyn. At the Montefiore Center, he was named chief resident in general surgery in 1964 and in plastic surgery in 1967.

Navy Lt. John L. MacMichael, 87 Jefferson Road, is serving aboard the USS Marathon, now in port in San Diego, the Navy's newest jet-powered gunboat. He is currently undergoing refresher training for service in Vietnam.

Dr. Albert E. Iverson, 302 Jefferson Road, has retired as director of the Institutional Relationships Division of the Boy Scouts of America, in New Brunswick.

The division develops and coordinates cooperation with national partner organizations, including religious, educational, civic and business groups.

A native of Chicago, Dr. Iverson graduated from St. Olaf College, Northfield, Minn., in 1927, earned a bachelor of theology degree in 1930 from Luther Thenlogical Seminary in St. Paul, Minn., and received a doctor of divinity degree from Carthage College, Kenosha, Wisc., in 1948.

A former pastor in Minnesota, he edited the weekly "Sacred Heart News," managed a Minneapolis radio station, and served as executive secretary of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America and executive director of its Board of Pensions.

As a volunteer in the scouting organization, Dr. Iverson served several years as a Scoutmaster, troop committeeman and member-at-large of the National Council. He was also a member and chairman of the National Lutheran Committee on Scouting and co-chairman of the National Protestant Committee on Scouting.

Edward B. McConnell, 45 Knoll Drive, administrative director of the New Jersey Courts, led a discussion of state court systems last week at the Institute of Judicial Administration's Appellate Judges Seminar, held at the New York University Law School. He will be involved in a similar seminar this month at the University of Alabama, sponsored by the Alabama Program for Continuing Legal Education.

Samuel E. Monroe, 7 Castle Howard Court, has been promoted to assistant vice-president in the National Division of the Chemical Bank New York Trust Company. A graduate of Washington and Lee University, he has been with the bank for five years.

THE MIDDLE MAN IS GONE: Lee Hilebner, captain of the 1967 Tiger eleven, has completed a career during which he started every game for three seasons. Graduation of the 230-lb middle guard creates a major replacement problem for Princeton.

FOOTBALL OUTLOOK—I

(This is the first of a series of four articles on Princeton's football prospects for 1968.)

Losses Unusually Light. Clear indication of the high degree of attrition that can affect an undergraduate generation during its four years in college is given in the football history of the Class of 1968. When they reported to freshman coach Pep McCarthy in the fall of 1964, there were more than 100 of them interested in making the sport a part of their Princeton careers.

Last November, when the Tigers played Dartmouth in the final game of the season, the number of seniors who saw action was 11. Three factors served to pare the original number down by better than 90%: survival of the fittest in the early going, as the original freshman squad of more than 100 was cut to about 40; departures from the squad through injury or academic pressure; and strong competition for varsity positions during the 1967 season from members of the sophomore and junior classes.

It is the latter factor that is now working toward a brighter future for Princeton football prospects than last fall, when the Orange and Black tied Harvard for fourth place — the Tigers' lowest finish in the present decade. The holdover strength is far greater than usual, particularly on offense.

A year ago, six members of the platoon charged with putting points on the scoreboard had graduated, including three-fourths of the backfield. When Dick Colman and his staff greet the 1968 squad at Blairstown on September 1, they'll have nine members of the starting offensive unit on hand, with the entire backfield intact. Rarely if ever in the post-World War II era of football at Princeton has veteran strength to this extent been available.

Total Losses: 15. Whereas only 11 seniors saw action against Dartmouth, there are actually 15 lettermen who were a part of the picture at Blairstown a year ago, who will be unavailable this season. Seven finished their careers as starters — two on offense and five on defense.

The offensive platoon will be without the shortside guard and the right end. On defense, two of the front five linemen have graduated, and three of the secondary starting were seniors. It is there that the primary trouble spot for the new season appears to exist — defensive problems very nearly cost the opener with Rutgers and in the third game on the schedule last fall, Cornell handed the disorganized Tigers a 47-13 shellacking.

Further evidence of the extent to which Princeton should benefit from its unusual degree of holdover strength comes from the losses reported by the seven other Ivies. Only Columbia, rarely a title contender, had a smaller number of graduating seniors — 11.

Harvard tops the league with 22 lettermen gone. The others: Yale, 20; Brown, 19; Dartmouth, 18; Cornell, 17; Penn, 15.

By positions, these are the lettermen lost from the 1967 squad:

Ends: Charlie Baby, Steve Pierce, Dick Lombardi. Baby moved into a starting position on defense early in his junior year and was a key member of that unit thereafter. At 6-0, 195, he was not big for the position but skill, strength and speed were all among his assets.

Pierce, the team's leading pass receiver in his junior year, was intermittently plagued with injuries last season and sat out the final game with Dartmouth. When in top shape, he was a major asset. Lombardi had figured to rank as his immediate reserve but a groin injury at Blairstown forced him to drop the sport in his final year.

Tackles: One from each platoon, both used in a reserve capacity. Pete Kashatus was a 225-lb replacement for Dave Hantz on the left side of the offensive line; Bill Gloyd, just under 200 pounds, saw somewhat more action than Kashatus on the second defensive unit, playing about half the time. With these two the only departing tackles, Princeton's holdover strength at this vital line position is greater than anywhere else in the league.

Guards: Conversely, the losses at this position are the heaviest on the squad. The two key players who will not return are Captain Lee Hitchner, a fixture at middle guard on the defensive unit for three seasons, and Bohdan Stefkiwsky, who was responsible for much topflight blocking as a guard on offense. Hitchner is one of a handful of players to start all 27 games of his varsity career and the hole this 230-lb. native of nearby Moorestown left will be difficult to fill. Gone, too, are his standin, Mike Hollander, and Bob Mauterstock. Stefkiwsky's replacement. The latter saw more action last season than any interior lineman, and with Mauterstock's departure, too, shortside guard is totally devoid of experience.

Center: None. For several years in a row, the position was held by a senior and the task of finding a replacement each fall was an annual headache for the coaching staff. The availability of both the top men from the 1967 squad is another plus this season.

Offensive Backs: Bob Weber at tailback is the principal loss because of his all-around ability, but he was benched so frequently with injuries that captain-elect Dick Bracken had more playing time in two years at the position than Weber did in three. Gone, too, is another player who would have seen more action had he been fortunate enough to remain unhurt. Bob Schoene won the quarterback job at Blairstown last fall but played only until the third game of the season, when a knee injury at Ithaca ended his career.

THREE - YEAR VETERAN: Bob Weber, who often started at tailback during his varsity career, is the Tigers' principal backfield loss for 1968.

Tom Blejwas was also a member of the Class of '68. He began his career as a wingback, was switched last season to end but saw action in less than 100 plays.

Defensive Backs: Bruce Wayne, a fine pass defender and a major threat on punt returns, was All-Ivy. Craig Stone was a three-year veteran. Dick Sherlock took part in more plays than any member of the defensive platoon.

A trio like that is not easy to replace, yet the task must be accomplished if the Tigers are to return to the ranks of the top contenders for the Ivy title. Even a good offense can be beaten if the defenders yield the odd touchdown in a high-scoring game.

(Next Week: The Sophomores)

NO. 3, NO. 1 SPLIT in PBA Baseball Action. Second-place Engine Co. No. 1 blanked league-leading No. 3 in a PBA game last week, but lost to third-place Hook and Ladder to miss the chance to move into first.

Dave Harwood gave up only two hits, fanning 13, as No. 1 beat the first place squad, powered by Bobby Speagle's grand slam and 15 walks from No. 1 pitcher John Mooney. No. 3 catcher Brian Jeffries threw out three runners on attempted steals to help preserve the shutout.

But Hook and Ladder hurlers Jack Bayer and Brian Smith combined forces to allow Engine No. 1 two hits and struck out 16 in an extra-inning thriller, as H & L's Dane Black scored in the bottom of the eighth on a wild pitch. The win moved H & L to within a game and a half of first place.

In other action last week, the Elks won their third and fourth games in a row, after losing their first seven contests of the season. Buddy Kleiber picked up a 3-4 win against the Eagles, stifling a last-inning rally, and Greg Christensen allowed the Sportsmen just two hits in a 11-1 victory. Christensen also collected two triples to lead the Elk bats.

Engine Company No. 3 picked up a 9-7 win over the Eagles, as the Birds' sixth inning rally fell short. Jim Britt hurled the win, while Joe Herrmann took the loss, despite 13 strikeouts. Jamie Petrone led the No. 3 batters with a home run and a triple, knocking in five runs. Dave Olney had three hits for the Eagles.

Two make-up games are set for Friday night, as Engine Co. No. 3 faces the Sportsmen at Grover Park and the Elks and Post 76, who tied last week, play at the old PCD field.

The standings:

	W.	L.	Pct.
Engine No. 3	9	2	.818
Engine No. 1	9	3	.750
Hook & Ladder	8	4	.667
Eagles	6	6	.500

BANNON STARS FOR YMCA in Weekend Baseball. Jeff Bannon won two games on the mound for the YMCA All-Stars over the weekend, leading the team at bat with six runs batted in in three games.

In a doubleheader Saturday against Queens, L.I., Bannon gave up two hits in a 6-2 nightcap win, after Queens had handcuffed Princeton, 7-0, in the opener. Bannon drove in two of the squad's runs with a triple.

Against the Montgomery Self-Starters Sunday, Bannon struck out nine and gave up two earned runs in a nine-inning, 14-6 victory. At the plate he was 3-for-6, driving in four runs.

Other strong weekend performances were turned in by first baseman Larry Parker,

$1699*
What's the catch?
There isn't any.
$1699* is the suggested retail price at the port of entry for the VW sedan
The price includes Federal excise tax and import duty.
It also includes the built-in heater, defroster, windshield washer, electric windshield wipers, outside rear view mirror, and seat belts front and back.
Not to mention the padded dash and front seat headrests.
It's the price of the real thing, not a stripped-down economy model.
What else do you have to pay?
The charge for transporting the car from the port of entry. The dealer delivery charge. And local sales tax.
There is one optional that makes a lot of sense. The matching leatherette upholstery. For $30.00 extra. (Nearly everybody gets it because it eliminates the need for slipcovers.)
Well, that's it.
Unless, of course, you count the cost of gas and oil it takes you to get here in your present car

BSL Division Races Close. The top two teams in each division of the Business Softball League met last week, with RCA Labs A defeating RCA Astro and Accelerator knocking off McGraw Hill. Going into the final week of regular season play, RCA Labs held a one game lead and the two eastern division squads were tied.

RCA Labs 6-5 victory over Astro, in a game which virtually settled the western division title, was achieved mainly on the strength of the fine pitching provided by Max Hopkins. He got off to a rough start giving Astro five runs on six hits in the first two innings, two on a four bagger by Dick Lensis, but pitched near perfect ball the rest of the way. Only two more Astro men reached first base over the next five innings.

Meanwhile the Lab men began to peck away at the 5-0 deficit, scoring a run in the third, and two more in the fourth on successive home runs by John Meyer and Wally Reichert. The winners tied the game in the fifth on a triple by Reg Bentivogli, which drove in the fourth run, and a sacrifice fly by Steve Conner, which brought home Bentivogli.

In the seventh, Walt Heinbothem opened with a single, and pinch runner Doug Bosomworth brought across the winning run when Jud Kodner smashed a triple, his third hit of the game. RCA Labs also sparkled in the field with Tom Roberts and Ron Infanti closing off the center of the infield, and Don Pultorak and Steve Conner combined on a double play to nab an Astro runner trying to score from third after a fly.

In another tighly fought contest, McGraw-Hill saw its one game lead go down the drain, when it lost to Accelerator, 4-3. Brady Lawrence drove in what proved to be the winning runs with a two-out double in the fourth that scored two. Joe Frangipani accounted for the other runs with a single and a sacrifice fly. Barry Hibbs went three for three and Tony Gervasio had two hits.

Ange Vasti's four bagger gave McGraw-Hill two of its runs in the top half of the fourth, and the losers pushed another across in the seventh, but could not manage the tying marker.

RCA Labs B and Shell staged a see-saw affair with RCA Labs finally coming out on top, 7-6. Both scored two in the first, with Shell moving ahead 4-2 with single tallies in the second and third. The winners tied it up with single runs in the third and fourth, and pulled ahead to stay with three in the fifth. Bill Procaccini hammered a four bagger for the winners and Ron Benietech had a triple.

Tom Edgar had four for four including a double in lead Columbian Carbon to an 8-4 triumph over EMR. Charles Armenti, Al Rizer, Tom Ritardi and Bob Lewis all had two hits. Larry Lynch came up with a five for five performance as ERC downed ETS, 16-7. Mike DeAngelo had four for five with a home run and Dom Belluso also hit a round tripper.

In other games, RCA Astro whipped FMC, 8-2, and RCA Labs A trounced American Cyanamid, 11-5, prior to their big meeting last Thursday. Dow Jones walloped Hopewell TV, 13-2, and NCA beat ORC, 18-7.

This weekend five teams in the league, RCA Labs (A and B as one team), RCA Astro, Accelerator, McGraw-Hill and ERC, are entered in the New Jersey State Industrial Slo-Pitch tournament. The games, involving 16 teams in all, will be played in Trenton.

DOUBLES TENNIS TROPHY

To Princeton-Florida Pair. Robert Andresen, Brookstone Drive, and P. J. Halpin, of Florida, grandson of Bedens Brook professional Whitney Powers, teamed last week for the 12-and-under doubles title in the New Jersey District Junior Tennis Championships, held at the Community Park Courts.

The Andresen-Halpin pair defeated Jim Edwards of Texas and Philadelphian Craig McManus in the finals, 6-4, 6-4, leading Princeton area players in the 12 and 14-and-under events.

Steven Tobolsky, Snowden Lane, and Michel Glouchevitch, Mansgrove Road, both reached the semi-finals in the 14-year-old boys singles, but were eliminated by the two top seeds, as top-ranked Middle States player Richie Gerber of Philadelphia downed Tobolsky, 6-3, 6-3, and second-seeded Dwight Edwards, of El Paso, Texas, outplayed Glouchevitch, 6-0, 6-1. Edwards upset Gerber in the final, 6-1, 1-6, 6-3.

Edwards and Joe Korahora, of Westfield, eliminated the Tobolsky-Glouchevitch pair in the semi-finals of the boys' doubles, 6-2, 6-1, before winning the event.

In the girls' 14-and-under doubles, Princeton teams of Daren Hicks and Ellen Fisher, and Randy Gulick and Vicki Austin, were both eliminated in the semi-final round. Reaching the semi-finals in the consolation singles were Claudia Schmatt, Kim Shoemaker, Miss Fisher, Jay Bernard and Lucien Brush.

AAU Junior Olympics finals, set for August 17 and 18 in Livingston and Lake Mohawk. With the top six times in the state eligible for the finals, Princeton is now represented in 26 individual events and six relays.

In a weekend meet in Westwood, Dede Henneman placed second in the girls' 12-and-under 100-meter freestyle, with a time of 1:12.2. Jane Fremon was also second in the 200-meter freestyle for girls 15 to 17, in 2:28.9.

Bill Crell took second place in the 200-meter breaststroke for boys 15 to 17, in 3:00.4, as Mike Martin placed sixth in the same race with 3:06.1, to also reach the finals.

The girls' 13 and 14 year 200-meter medley relay team from Princeton placed fourth in the event, in 2:28.2. Ginny Eichbaum, Margaret Martin, Martha Lasley and Carrie Bolster make up the team.

PINE BRAE WINS

Defeats Bedens Brook. Pine Brae's swim team took a 72-51 decision from Bedens Brook Sunday, in the first dual meet in the Bedens Brook club's three-year history.

Individual winners for Pine Brae were Penny Pariso, Kim Mulinos, Matt Strickland, Sarah Clarke and Rosemary Bordlemay. Winning races for Bedens Brook were Jeff Lyle and John Mittnacht. The six relay races were split evenly, as Pine Brae captured both 14-and-under freestyle events and the girls' 14 and-under medley, while Bedens Brook won the 12-and-under boys and girls' freestyle relays and the 14-and-under boys' medley.

The third annual Princeton area Summer Swim Club Championships will be held August 29 and 30 at Pine Brae, with freestyle individual events and both freestyle and step-up medley relays. Entry blanks and information are available from Bruce Nystrom, meet director at Pine Brae, 921-6381.

RIVER ROAD VICTOR

In Off-Year Swimming. River Road Swim Club, sponsored by the Montgomery Township Recreation Commission, ran away with the 440-entry Pine Brae Off-Year Invitational Swim Meet last weekend, scoring 214 points, to second-place Pine Brae's 102.

The off-year meet, the first of its kind in the Princeton area, organizes age-groupings to the advantage of younger swimmers, using 7-and-under, 8 and 9, 10 and 11, 12 and 13, and 14-and-up groups instead of the customary AAU groups of 8-and-under, 9-and 10, 11 and 12-13 and 14 and 15 to 17.

River Road, Pine Brae, Glen Ridge (72 points), and Pike Brook (65 points), made up the top league in the competition, with League II including Valley Club, 32, Lawrenceville, 28, Willows, 21, Community Park, 20, Lackatong, 9½, Flemington-Raritan, 9½, and Bedens Brook, 4½. Qualifying heats were held Saturday morning, dividing the competitors into two divisions, for finals Saturday night.

The top three finishers in each division were:

Women's Open 100-yard freestyle: Jane Fremon, 57.1, Martha Lasley, Carrie Bolster.

Men's Open 100-yard freestyle: Dan Golden, 53.6, Ray Kenwell, Bill Kenwell.

7-and-under boys' 25-yard freestyle, B DIVISION: Mark Delorenzo, 21.4, Colin Christie, Doug Gildenberg; A DIVISION: Matt Strickland, 17.4, Tom Bolster, Mike Duffy.

9-and-under girls' 25-yard freestyle A DIVISION: Kris Reeves, 14.6, Janet Delorenzo, Nancy Eichbaum; B DIVISION: Pat Simpson, 18.0, Lesley Nelson, Claudia Christie.

9-and-under boys' 25-yard freestyle A DIVISION: Ben Doyle, 14.3, Mike McKenna, John Hartmann; B DIVISION: Bobby Talerick, 16.9, John Kahutanzey, Zead Hamden.

11-and-under girls' 50-yard freestyle, A DIVISION: Kathy Krauss, 29.8, Margaret Jillson, Kim Reeves; B DIVISION: Sarah Clark, Gertrude Buiting, Karel Erickson.

11-and-under boys' 50-yard freestyle, A DIVISION: Mike Reock, 30.2, Jerry McMahon, Bobby Hoedemaker; B DIVISION: Ted Zeng, Frank Camp, Ken Simpson.

13-and-under girls' 50-yard freestyle, A DIVISION: Martha Lasley, 28.3, Margaret Martin, Ginny Eichbaum; B DIVISION: Eileen Tusa, 30.9, Marcha Sorace, Gretchen Kappes.

13-and-under boys' 50-yard freestyle, A DIVISION: Tom McKenna, Chuck Hector, 27.4, Mark Humphreys; B DIVISION: Alex Kenonchuk, 32.7, John Davis, Neill Dorflinger.

17-and-under girls' 50-yard freestyle, A DIVISION: Jane Fremon, 26.5, Darlene Daniels, Carrie Bolster; B DIVISION: Martha Gillman, 29.6, Debbie Coda.

17-and-under boys' 50-yard freestyle, A DIVISION: Dan Golden, 24.0, Ray Kenwell, Michael Hughes; B DIVISION: Jim Sorace, 27.7, Harry Norton, Don Talerick.

News Of The CHURCHES

"THE TROUBLEMAKERS"

Newark Film Scheduled. A documentary film titled "The Troublemakers" will be featured at this Tuesday's community workshop sponsored by the Princeton Christian Unity Committee. The film concerns a well-intentioned group of young people working in the Newark inner city.

The program, third of the PCUC workshops on "Poverty and Plenty," will be held in Princeton Methodist Church. A covered dish supper is set for 6:15 to 7 p.m. The film and discussion follow from 7 to 8:30.

Leonard Newton of Witherspoon Street Presbyterian Church, who organized the spectacularly successful one-day clothing drive for Newark fire victims one Sunday last spring, will serve as a discussion leader. Scheduled to share the platform with him are the Rev. Geddes W. Hanson, former pastor of Reeve Memorial Church, Philadelphia, and of Witherspoon Presbyterian Church, Indianapolis, Ind., and Mrs. Carrie Hanson, a student of Urban sociology at Rutgers.

Mrs. Charles West is program chairman. Mrs. Harvey Hook is in charge of arrangements at the church.

Families attending the covered dish supper are asked to bring a main dish, salad or dessert in a quantity sufficient for themselves plus three. Beverage and table service are provided. There will be child care for babies and young children.

The PCUC has sponsored two well-attended workshops this summer. During July, "Dialogue on Poverty," a drama, was held at the Stuart School, and a panel discussion titled, "The Unknown American: Migrants," took place July 30 in First Baptist Church. A fourth workshop, "Young People Report," will be held August 27 at All Saints' Chapel.

BULLETIN NOTES

On Labor Day Weekend, an ecumenical family camp will be held under arrangements being made by Witherspoon Street Presbyterian Church. The cost is $13 per person. Mrs. Charles West and Mrs. Floyd Campbell are in charge of reservations and information.

Dr. W. Eugene Claburn, assistant professor in the department of religion at Penn State University, will be the guest preacher at the 10 a.m. worship service Sunday in Calvary Baptist Church. The church has a dual affiliation with the United Church of Christ.

Rev. Dr. C. Shelby Rooks, executive director of the Rockefeller Theological Institute, will lead a discussion of "Problems of Higher Education in New Jersey" this Sunday prior to the union service of the three Princeton Presbyterian Churches at St. Andrew's. The meeting will be held at 8:30 a.m. in the church social hall.

"What Do We Tell The Young?" is the title of the sermon by the Rev. H. Dana Fearon, pastor, at 9:30 this Sunday in Lawrenceville Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. Olin McGowan, pastor of Second Calvary Baptist Church of Hopewell, will be the guest preacher this Sunday in Calvary Baptist Church, Hopewell. The service is at 10 a.m.

Obituaries

a charter member of Highland Park Masonic Lodge 240 and the old Second Regiment Band of Trenton.

Survivors include his wife, Hazel Smith Young; two sons, B. Lee of Plainsboro and Richard E. of Middletown, Conn.; two daughters, Mrs. Guy E. Austin of Kendall Park and Mrs. A. W. Milford of St. Petersburg, Fla.; one sister, Mrs. Vincent F. Dux of Toms River; nine grandchildren and 16 great grandchildren.

The service was held in a Cranbury Funeral Home with burial in Rocky Hill Cemetery.

Mrs. William Smith, 40, died unexpectedly July 31 at her home, 240 South Main Street, Pennington. She was an attendant at the New Jersey Neuropsychiatric Institute and a member of Bearl's all-girl chorus, Pennington.

Surviving are her husband, William W. Smith, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Garland H. Fields Sr., of Trenton; a daughter, Miss Beverly J. Smith and a son Travis Michael, both at home; a brother, Garland H. Fields, Jr. of Trenton and a sister, Mrs. Charles F. Logan, Jr. of Ewing Township.

The service was held at a Pennington Funeral Home, with interment in Stoutsburg Cemetery, Hopewell.

Mary M. Glover, 11, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Glover of 64 Spruce Street, died August 3 in Memorial Hospital, New York, after a lengthy illness.

Born in Princeton, she was in the fourth grade of the John Witherspoon School.

Also surviving are two sisters, Etta at home and Mrs. Jean Lyman of California, and her paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Dale D. Glover of Farmingdale.

Requiem mass was celebrated in St. Paul's Church. Interment was in the parish cemetery under direction of the Kimble Funeral Home.

Mrs. Clara A. Hagamen, 89, of Skillman, died August 3 in a Ringoes nursing home. She was the widow of Frank R. Hagamen.

Surviving are a son, Robert F. Hagaman of Skillman, and a grandchild.

The service was held at the Mather Funeral Home, the Rev. Albert Smith of Blawenburg Reformed Church officiating. Interment was in Blawenburg Cemetery.

UNION SERVICE: Elder John Counts (left) of Witherspoon Street Presbyterian Church will conduct the 10 a.m. service of the three Princeton Presbyterian churches Sunday in St. Andrew's Church. The Rev. Dr. William LeG. Tucker, minister of outreach for the three churches, will be the preacher. His sermon topic is "Such As I Have, I Give Unto Thee."

Biafran Aid?

The Rev. Dr. William LeG. Tucker, minister of outreach of the three Princeton Presbyterian churches and former pastor of St. Andrew's, is interested in forming a committee to promote action for relief of the Biafrans.

Concerned Princetonians are asked to call Dr. Tucker at St. Andrew's, 924-2038, in the mornings.

LACROSSE TIE HOLDS

Navy, Red Win Again. Triumphs by identical scores of 7-2 last week kept Navy and Red in a first-place tie in the Summer Lacrosse League. Each has a 4-1 record.

Navy defeated Green on the strength of Dave Leete's five goals. Dave Liedermann and Jay Bushnell each adding one. The victors held a 4-0 lead at half-time.

Phil Allen's four goals paced Red to its victory over Blue. Gordon Hart added a pair for Red, while Matt Alexander and Phil Lambert scored for the losers. Red had only a 2-1 margin at the half but took charge thereafter.

Playing with only a 12-man squad, Princeton lost to the Philadelphia Lacrosse Club Sunday, 10 to 7. Leete's five-goal output kept the losers in contention but the lack of bench strength was too great a handicap. Bill Pettit and Bill Douwnes also scored for Princeton, with Hart contributing three assists.

MRS. JOHNSON PLACES

In Golf Championship. Mrs. Edgar Johnson, a member of Springdale Golf Club, placed second last week in medal play staged for women of the Trenton District over the Arrowbrook course with a net 69.

The following day at Springdale, she took low net honors with a 73. The latter score included a two-stroke penalty.

JETS HOLD LEAD

in Summer Basketball. A 76-59 victory over the Stars Sunday night enabled the Jets to maintain their first-place status in the Princeton Summer Basketball League. They have an 8-1 record, good for a two-game lead over the second place Bombers.

Fletcher McNeil's 24 points paced the Jets. The victors held a 31-24 half-time margin.

The Bombers topped the Panthers, 104 to 87, as Ed McEwen accounted for 25 points and Gerry Gunnell added 24. Their half-time lead was 52-47.

McEwen's output increased his league-leading total to 197 in the race for individual honors. Gunnell follows with 185.

The Raiders' Willie Hall is credited with 157 points and the highest game average, 22.4. John Bailey, who produced 30 points for the Panthers in a losing effort, has 155, while Fletcher McNeil is also among the leaders with 142.

Games are played Thursday and Sunday evenings at the YMCA outdoor court on Avalon Place.

Contemporary a-la-fantastic

We just can't find words appropriate enough to describe this redwood champion. Surrounded by many beautiful trees and shrubs, and superbly landscaped, we just barely managed to get this open view to the rear of the property. Situate[illegible] has all the ingredients for lo[illegible]t indoor luxury. A truly modern [illegible]s, 3 baths, large living room with [illegible]l dream kitchen, dining area, finished basement, two car garage. Central air conditioning, thermopane windows throughout, wall-to-wall carpeting, and loads of other fine features. Only a few years old, and yet in newer than new condition. Fantastic??? See for yourself. Asking $59,500

Gracious living is always waiting for those who can enjoy Elm Ridge Park custom built homes. This one, by one of Princeton's finest builders, has a view of Honey Lake. Rhyming with "Gracious" is "Spacious", aptly describing the roominess of this house. . . a 27 ft. living room - a chair railed 14 x 14 dining room - a thoroughly modern country-size kitchen and a family room with a charming hearth and a hand hewned beam ceiling. In addition to three large bedrooms, the Master Bedroom is 27 feet. See it soon! $68,900

Princeton's popular Riverside area can be yours! In fine condition inside and out, this 3 bedroom home boasts three-zone heat. The entire basement is finished and includes a well-planned family room. There is a fireplace in the living room and, besides a full-size dining room, you'll find breakfast area in the kitchen. 2½ baths. 2-car garage. Attractively landscaped lot. $57,500

Lawrenceville homes aren't offered for sale too often. You're fortunate far here are two, and, best of all, both in the 'low thirties."

One, on a quiet, tree-lined street near the center of the village has the floor plan you've been looking for. Living room with fireplace, separate dining room, kitchen, powder room, den. On the second floor 3 bedrooms, sitting room and bath. Well planted lot. $32,000

Also in Lawrenceville and near local shopping is this 2-story house which was recently renovated. Includes living room with fireplace, dining area, eat-in-kitchen, bath and family room on first floor. 4 bedrooms & 2 baths on second. Detached garage. Reasonably priced. $32,500

RENTAL - 2-story unfurnished house. 3 bedrooms, bath, attached garage. $225, plus utilities

FOR THE PARTICULAR PERSON WANTING A SPECTACULAR SETTING. a 24 acre tract with brook, in Pennington; a good buy for the person with the imagination. $18,500. THERE ARE MANY PRETTY SPOTS IN CENTRAL JERSEY, but this nearly 9 acre tract is as picturesque a location as you will find anywhere. When you gaze out over the valley, it is hard to believe you are only 8 miles from Princeton. There is a 2 bedroom rancher that could be enlarged or touched up. $31,000. SOMEONE LOOKING FOR A TRACT TO KEEP A FEW HORSES. 13 acres of ground with a nearly rebuilt house. More to be done but a good project. $39,000. Civil War schoolhouse and 39 acres of wild ground. $7500. A trailer with 3 acres of wood way up in the mountains. Very rugged. $4800. A unique "timber out of the woods" house, with 6.31 acres of nice trees. Needs a well and heat among other things but it is high up on the mountain and would be a bargain for the right party. $8500. LAND. See us, we have some acreage that can be cut up or bought in large parcel. SPECIAL FOR CONTRACTORS OR INVESTORS. 60 acres of top land for homes at the corner of Federal City and Bull Run Roads, Hopewell Township. Take a look at this choice tract around the new church. This office is sole agent and will supply details on inquiry. JOHN D. GUINNESS, Real Estate Broker, 2 West Broad Street, Hopewell, N. The GREATEST . . . BEST . . . FASTEST . . . How many times have you seen and heard these words in ads selling service . . . we admit, we've used them ourselves. But we have found that you can't sell a service with superlatives! We simply say that we think our TV Repair Service is merely better than adequate . . . it's only GOOD.

We have trained, competent technicians with years of experience in their profession to back that statement.

And most of all, we have many satisfied customers . . . which is, after all, our ultimate goal!

SIX BEDROOMS . . . just a year ago, this family with seven children found a century-old farm house on an acre, with great old shade trees, only 5 minutes from the Junction. Completely restored after the manner of Colonial Williamsburg, the house has a spacious center hall with a wide stairway that instantly reveals the fact no expense was ever spared in its construction, or its restoration. To the right is a very large living room with fireplace. To the left, a dining room big enough for twelve, a breakfast room, a modern kitchen with stainless steel sink, electric dishwasher, new Formica counter tops, a walk-in pantry and a modern laundry. At the end of the hall, there's a full bathroom (brand new!) which can be a powder room for guests, or where the children can wash up as soon as they enter the house. Downstairs, the ceilings are high. Upstairs, there are 6 bedrooms and 2 more brand new bathrooms. In the attic three huge new closets: Brand new air-conditioners cool both floors. (All equipment, and draperies, included in the sale.) In all our experience, we have rarely seen a more immaculate home — fresh paint in Williamsburg colors, new wallpaper, gleaming re-finished floors, shining new bathrooms and kitchen. (*) $65,000

CENTRAL AIR-CONDITIONING . . . this fine home also has special insulation to assure perfect climate indoors all Summer long. Located in a quiet Lawrence Township neighborhood, the house has foyer, living room, dining area, modern kitchen with an extra large wall oven, 3 bedrooms and one bath on the upper level, family room, powder room, den (or 4th bedroom) on the lower level. Owner has a very desirable 5¾% FHA mortgage which could be assumed by a qualified buyer. $34,500

NELSON RIDGE . . . in this lovely area, which is still rural in character yet is only a few minutes from the center of Princeton, this long, low white one-story home offers a great deal to people interested in large living areas for entertainment . . . or work. The house has foyer, living room, large dining room, modern kitchen, and a vast family room with wall-to-wall carpeting. Both the den and the screened breezeway have fireplaces. Master bedroom with dressing room and bath. 2 small bedrooms and bath adjoin the den, which could also be a study room for children. Game room in basement. 1½ acres of land. (*) $55,000

RIVERSIDE . . . this fine home, located in one of Princeton's most admired neighborhoods, is in mint condition. Entry hall, living room with fireplace, ample dining room, very modern kitchen with electric dishwasher and disposal (and a good-sized breakfast area), study — or 4th bedroom — and bath. Spacious family room with an exit to the patio. Upstairs: 3 more bedrooms and 2 very large tiled baths. Exterior has been freshly painted. In winter, three thermostats provide very flexible heating. In Summer, a huge attic fan and many fine big shade trees make this a very comfortable residence (*) $57,500

NEAR THE LAKE . . . and with central air-conditioning too! On a high lot with many lofty shade trees, this fine home will appeal to people who appreciate perfection. The living room, with its high ceiling, companionable fireplace and the opulent wall-to-wall carpeting, has a balcony leading to 3 bedrooms (one, extra large, for it was planned to be two) and two baths. The dining room is very spacious, and the very modern kitchen has plenty of space for table and chairs. Downstairs: family room with bar, guest (or maid's) room and bath. Two-car attached garage. In the attic, a darkroom and lots of storage space. Outdoors: a large swimming pool in a completely fenced yard, beautifully landscaped. All in all, a wonderful home, in excellent condition. (*) $69,500

(*) Many more fine homes in Princeton and vicinity in every price range. Ample parking space for our clients.

But don't take our word for it. Take the word of The Stopwatches magazine: "You can't buy a better car for the money; you can't buy as unusual a car for any price." They called the Hydropneumatic suspension "superb"...the automatic self-leveling "ave-inspiring"...the brakes "first-rate"...the steering "quick"...the craftsmanship "the best." For proof, take their advice...take a test drive.

A great deal has been done to our look to make you look into our great deal.

It does things other small cars shouldn't do.

Cornering at high speeds is one of the last things to expect small cars to do, successfully. Unless it's a SAAB, the out-of-the-ordinary small car. Out of the ordinary because it has front-wheel drive. So it doesn't push you around like others do. It pulls you around corners, curves and other drivers' mistakes. Is that all SAAB has? Not on your life. Most ordinary cars don't give you, even as options, all the standard SAAB safety features.
As an optional extra, our new V-4 engine has a LIFETIME GUARANTEE.

SAAB

Standard automatic shown. Price slightly higher Transmission is P.O.E. East Coast. You can drive it like a big car.

Hydropneumatic suspension softens and shock absorber.

Soft Deal

A great deal has been done to our look to make you look into our great deal.

The unique Hydropneumatic suspension is the first to provide the smoothest, most comfortable ride, and one of the safest. Because it cushions the road and absorbs shocks for better than any steel spring suspension. A test drive over any road will prove it.
